

Stuff I need to know about for GCSE History

Medicine Through Time

Name: _____

Topic	Have you got notes for this topic? (tick or cross)	Do you understand this topic? (tick or cross)	Mr Belshaw's initials when checked
The difference between natural and supernatural medicine
The difference between public health and medicine
The difference between germ theory and previous theories
Why the four humours theory was important ( your special topic! )
How the civilisations of the ancient world were different from each other
What the Roman Catholic church was
New things that happened to medicine in the Middle Ages
How the Renaissance period was different to the Middle Ages
How Galen was different from Hippocrates
What the Industrial Revolution was
How the Industrial Revolution changed medicine
How the Industrial Revolution changed attitudes to public health
The difference between a physician, surgeon and apothecary
How the 'factors' have influenced the development of medicine ( this is very important! )
What the 1848 Public Health Act

specified
What the 1875 Public Health Act specified
The problems with the 1948 National Health Act
What the NHS is
What the 'welfare state' is and how it developed
The terms of the National Insurance Act, 1913
What Edwin Chadwick did
Comparison of the work of Koch and Pasteur and their importance
Why and how the role of women in medicine changed in the 19 th century
What anaesthetics are and how they are used
What antiseptics are and how they are used
How antibiotics work and are used
What inoculation is and the work of Jenner
Why Islamic doctors were important to the development of medicine
How the Black Death was spread and its effects on medicine
Details of the work of Pare, Vesalius and Harvey
How the World Wars affected medicine and public health			